

Do you believe in...

- Limited government?
- Constitutionalism?
- Civil liberties?
- Free markets?
- Anti-war?
- Non-interventionalism?

Are you tired of...

- Partisan politics?
- Little variation between parties?
- Big government?
- Government regulations?
- Infringement of rights?
- War?

Then join

Marquette Students for Liberty

A Libertarian Student Group

The Libertarian movement is gaining strength.

- There are two openly Libertarian candidates vying for the GOP Presidential Nomination.
- Ron Paul often polls in 3rd place and is within striking distance of the nomination.
- The American people are getting fed up with big government and government regulations.

Students for Liberty is a well connected, worldwide Libertarian student group founded by students just 3 years ago.

Students for Liberty offers...

- A great place to discuss issues with other Libertarian students.
- An opportunity to learn more about Libertarianism.
- A way to help advance the Libertarian movement.
- Great connections and opportunities through the Mackinac Center for Public Policy, The Cato Institute, and the Institute for Humane Studies among other organizations.

Contact Ryan Kulp at ryan.kulp@marquette.edu if you are interested or have any questions.