Your Results

We looked at what you told us today to see if you might be able to get help with food, health care, prescription drugs, child care, W-2 cash assistance and help finding a job and other services.

You'll have to apply for these programs to get a final decision and we'll let you know how to do that. Keep in mind that you always have the right to apply, no matter what this website tells you.

It looks like you may be able to get these programs

FoodShare
- It looks like your household may be able to get between $430 and $480 to buy food each month.
- Because of your situation, it also looks like you could get FoodShare benefits about a week after you apply.
- Keep in mind that some people are not able to get FoodShare benefits, including some people on strike, some immigrants without papers, and some college students. In most cases, their children and other people in the home may still be able to get benefits.
- A special note for immigrants: getting FoodShare benefits will not hurt your immigration status.

Health Care
- It looks like Linda, Tom and Dick may be able to enroll in the BadgerCare Plus Standard plan.
- The BadgerCare Plus Standard plan will pay for most services you get from BadgerCare Plus health care providers. It will also pay for prescriptions (unless you are also getting Medicare). You may have a small co-payment for some services and prescriptions.
- It looks like Linda may be able to get confidential, no-cost family planning services. Individuals may be able to get these services even if they already have health insurance.
- This program is available to individuals who want birth control supplies and services.
- Keep in mind that BadgerCare Plus also covers family planning services. However, you may choose to apply only for family planning services.
- A special note for immigrants: getting low- or no-cost health care will not hurt your immigration status. Keep in mind that in some cases, immigrants are only able to get health care in emergencies.

Child Care
- It looks like you may be able to get help with paying for child care for Tom and Dick.
- It looks like you could begin getting help with child care from the first day of the month in which you apply.
- Keep in mind that most people can only get help with child care if they need it in order to go to work or to school or they are in the W-2 or FSET program. If you need child care to go to school, you may also need to be working to get help.
- You may not be eligible for child care if you or someone in your household has committed a child care intentional program violation (IPV).
✓ If you are not a US citizen, you may not be able to get help with child care for children who are not US citizens.

Wisconsin Works (W-2)

✓ It looks like Linda, Tom and Dick might be able to get W-2 cash assistance and help finding a job. Because someone in your household has money from a job, the monthly W-2 payment may be under $673 a month. The amount of money you get will be decided by how many hours you work at your job now. You will also have to participate in activities that will help you get more money from the job now or from a different job.

✓ Keep in mind that you may not be able to get any W-2 cash assistance because someone in your household gets some money from a job. You might be able to get help finding a job that pays more money though.

✓ The W-2 program counts your self-employment money before you subtract business costs. If you told us that someone in your house gets money from self-employment you told us how much money was made after subtracting business costs. Your W-2 worker will help you with this.

✓ Keep in mind that you have to live in Wisconsin to get help from W-2. Also, you have to cooperate with Child Support unless you and your child would be in danger if you did. You also have to either have a Social Security Number or have asked for a Social Security Number for each person applying for W-2.

✓ Assets owned by anyone in the household are counted for W-2. If you own assets worth more than $2,500, you will not be able to get cash assistance.

✓ You may not be able to get W-2 cash assistance if you are not a U.S. citizen or a qualified alien.

School Meals

✓ It looks like Tom and Dick may be able to get free meals at school, if attending school right now.

To learn more about getting free or reduced-price meals at school, click the Next button at the bottom of the page.

Summer Food

✓ It looks like Tom and Dick may be able to get free meals during the summer.

To learn more about getting summer meals for your children, click the Next button at the bottom of the page.

TEFAP

✓ It looks like your household may be able to get food at no cost through a food pantry or other location in your area.

To learn more about getting food at no cost, click the Next button at the bottom of the page.

Home Energy Assistance

✓ It looks like your household may be able to get help with paying for heat and electricity through the Wisconsin Home Energy Assistance Program (WHEAP). Your local WHEAP agency may also be able to help you with services like keeping your heat from being turned off or fixing a broken furnace.

✓ During the heating season, you may be able to get a total heating benefit of $210 to $304. You may also be able to get a total electricity benefit of $166 to $251. The heating season is from October 1 to May 15.

✓ Keep in mind that only U.S. citizens and legal residents are able to get help from WHEAP.

Tax Credits

It looks like Linda may be able to get:

✓ A federal earned income credit of up to $5,236

✓ An additional credit through the state earned income tax credit

✓ A child tax credit of up to $1,000 for each child under 17
The Wisconsin Homestead Tax Credit

You may qualify for a federal earned income credit up to $5,751, if your household has three or more qualifying children.

The amount of money that may be refunded to you will depend on each person's exact income, the number of children they claim as dependents, and how much tax they owe.

State Life Insurance Fund

It looks like Linda, Tom and Dick may be able to get life insurance through the State Life Insurance Fund by paying the required premium.

Long Term Care

Based on what you told us, no one in your home is living in a nursing home or may need to move to a nursing home. As a result, we did not look to see if you might be able to get help with nursing home care or in-home health care. Keep in mind that we only asked about nursing home care if you have someone in your home who is elderly (65 or older), blind or disabled.

If you would like additional information, the best thing to do is to contact your local county/tribal human services agency. Click here to find your local agency.

SeniorCare

Based on what you told us today, it looks like no one in your home is 65 or older. This means you won't be able to get help buying prescription drugs through the SeniorCare program.

If you have questions, click here to learn more about the SeniorCare Program.

Medicare Part D

Based on what you told us today, it looks like no one in your home is getting Medicare. As a result, no one in your home will be able to get help with paying for prescription drugs through Medicare.

WIC

Based on what you told us today, it looks like there are no pregnant women, new mothers, or children under age 5 in your home right now. This means that no one in your home will be able to get WIC.
