FACTS ON WALID SHOEBAT’S “SHADY” BACKGROUND

- Walid Shoebat claims to have advocated violence and raised money for terrorist acts when living on American soil. There has been no recorded FBI investigation on him, neither was he ever indicted on any charge in the US; nor has he any security problems at US airports.
- Walid Shoebat supposedly changed his name to an alias in fear of attacks by Muslims but has no problem mentioning the names of the people he worked with while being a “terrorist” on national news and radio channels. Wouldn’t that blow his cover?
- Shoebat is a self-proclaimed Palestinian Muslim born former PLO and Hamas terrorist who converted to Christianity and is now a Zionist Evangelist Christian who is frequently invited by Jewish groups.
- According to Shoebat, who has admitted to being a Zionist, his Zionist Evangelism means that in order for the end of times to occur, Israel will need to be established, then all Jews will be converted to Christianity. This comes from a staunch critic of Islamic extremism. Why are Jewish and Pro-Israel groups supporting a man who calls for their extinction?
- Shoebat has claimed to work for Hamas and the PLO. Anyone who is up to date on current affairs would know that these are two organizations that do not mix at all. They are opponents of one another and are at odds with each other.
- Shoebat’s personal story has always shifted from time to time. He claimed to have planted a bomb on the roof of a bank in Israel. In the same interview he claimed to have thrown the bomb into the bank.
- Shoebat has revealed that while born in Bethlehem, his family is from the Palestinian town of Beit Sahour. Beit Sahour is a Christian town.
- In April of 2006 at a USF speech, Shoebat stated “Sometimes we have to shoot brother wolf until he promises to stop eating sister sheep.” Upon stating this, he was asked if more violence was the way to attain peace, he replied yes, that essentially, extrajudicial assassinations were acceptable. This is one of the statements made by Shoebat revealing is endorsement of hate crimes towards Muslims.
- Josh Nathan-Kazis, a reporter for New Voices, a Jewish magazine interviewed Shoebat’s agent and tour manager Keith Davies, and Irish Jew. After the interview Nathan-Kazis stated Davies “clearly feels that if attention is called to his evangelism, Shoebat’s credibility may suffer: immediately after I interviewed Shoebat and asked about his religious beliefs—particularly pressing him on details of his Christian Zionism—I received a call from Davies instructing me not to mention those beliefs in this article. If I did, Davies warned, it would “hurt Israel.””.
