Dear Trinity Member:

Chicago-area Justice Activists:

Support Justice for Farm Workers Picking Tomatoes for McDonald's!

Taco Bell finally got it. Now it's time to send a message to McDonald's. Join people of faith and farm-worker leaders to learn, reflect, and plan concrete ways of practicing our faith in order to ensure the human rights of farm workers in the fast-food industry. Learn how consumers and farm workers compelled Taco Bell to end sub-poverty wages and human rights abuses in its tomato supply chain. Plan how you can be a part of bringing McDonald's and the rest of the fast food industry to do the same.

Come to the Symposium

What: Partners in Faith – Working for Human Rights and Fair Food

When: March 3, 9:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.

Where: Euclid United Methodist Church, 405 S Euclid Ave., Oak Park, IL

Workshops will review the theological dimensions of the struggle for fair food, the basics of corporate supply chain responsibility, modern-day slavery in the fields, and taking action in our community. Partners in Faith will include strategy sessions to prepare for the Coalition of Immokalee Workers' April 2007 Truth Tour to Chicago and equip you with practical tools to inform and involve your congregation in the Campaign for Fair Food.

TO REGISTER, go to www.allianceforfairfood.org/docs/PartnersinFaith.pdf.

Also, SAVE THE DATE: April 13-14, 2007

The CIW has announced a major mobilization for farm worker justice, April 13–14, in the greater Chicago area as the Campaign for Fair Food enters a new phase nearly two years since the end of the Taco Bell boycott.
